Romantic Nights in the Open Port Area

Every June and September, special cultural events are held in the Open Port Area. These events are combined with cultural assets and music to offer diverse cultural performances and experiential activities. You can enjoy a sweet and romantic atmosphere here.

A Variety of Activities in the Open Port Area

The Open Port offers a variety of things to enjoy. Hanji craftwork gives visitors the opportunity to make artifacts for everyday living using Hanji (Korean paper), while dressing up in costumes from the Open Port times and taking black and white photographs help document your cherished memories.

Sinpo International Market Food: Sinpo Korean-style Sweet and Sour Chicken

You can taste Sinpo Sweet and Sour Chicken at Sinpo International Market near the Open Port Area. This dish is popular among both the locals and foreign tourists because of its sweet & spicy sauce and chewy texture.

Qing and Japanese Concession Area Boundary Stairs

Don't miss out on the Qing · Japanese Concession Area Boundary Stairs if you visit the Open Port. Chinese culture and Japanese culture are facing each other from across the street (left : China, right : Japan). It is noteworthy that you can see Chinese architecture with columns and red accents and Japanese-style buildings made of wood at a glance. There is Chinatown on the left side, and climbing up the Qing- Japanese Concession Area Boundary Stairs leads you to the Statue of Confucius and Jayu Park.

What Is a Concession?

This is a zone where foreign residents are permitted to stay and are granted extraterritorial rights in the Open Port area.

Hongyemun

Built in 1908 by the Japanese Army's engineering battalion for delivering supplies, Hongyemun is a stone gate resembling a rainbow connecting Incheon Port and Jeon-dong, Jung-gu. The gate retains its original form, making it a valuable asset for historical data about Japanese engineering methods and materials.

Keeping the Past, with Vintage Stores

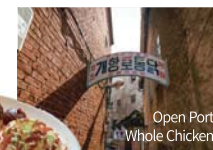

Old architectural buildings established 130 years ago are located in elaborate alleys around the Open Port Area. Many buildings have been renovated, but some places kept their classical atmosphere. Some of them have become famous cafes, and others have changed into popular gourmet restaurants. Along the winding alleys around the Open Port, you'll encounter structures with some 130 years of history.

Wherever You Go,
All Chinese Foods Served in Chinatown Are Delicious!

If you don't taste any Chinese foods while visiting Chinatown, you are really missing out on one of the greatest joys in life. Although each Chinese restaurant creates different tastes with their Jajangmyeon, Jjamppong, and Tangsuyuk, you will find them even better than you had expected, wherever you go.

Must-try Sweet and Savory Foods

Gong-gal Bbang, Hongdubyeong, Ong-gi Byeong, Tanghuru, Fortune cookies, etc.

Make Your Trip More
Joyful with Street Foods

When you walk on the streets in Chinatown, you will surely find some Chinese street foods here and there. Popular Chinese street foods, such as Gong-gal Bbang (bread) without stuffing, sweet red bean bread, Hongdubyeong, and Tanghulu, traditional Chinese snacks made with fruits and sugar, will make any visit to Chinatown feel more pleasant.

If You Go to Incheon,
Will You Find any White Jajangmyeon?

It is a mistake to think that all Jajangmyeon is black. White Jajangmyeon is made with traditional Tianmianjiang (sweet bean sauce) without MSG and color additives. As such food reserves as ground meat and onions are mixed together with white seasoned beans, it looks white and tastes light.

Chinatown

With the opening of Incheon Port, the Qing Dynasty Concession Area was established in Chinatown. The streets are filled with colorful buildings in Chinese style, harmonizing red and gold colors. It is also a pleasure to taste the Korean-style Chinese cuisine and various street foods.

Pai-lou

Opposite to Incheon Station, a huge Chinese traditional gate welcomes visitors. When you encounter the delicate sculptures and brilliant colors, you will find yourself taking photos of the landmark. An iconic symbol of Chinatown, there are four pai-lous (Junghwamun, Inhwamun, Seollinmun, and Hanjungmun Gate) in Chinatown.

Ganghwa Battlefields (Ganghwa Goryeogung Palace Site, Gaggotdondae Fortification, Gwangseongbo Fortress, Deokjinjin Fortress, and Chojijin Fortress)

Historically, Ganghwado Island is renowned for its protest in fierce battles against foreign invasions. Due to its pivotal point in marine transportation leading to the Hangang River, Gaggotdondae Fortification, Gwangseongbo Fortress, Deokjinjin Fortress, and Chojijin Fortress were all battlefields, while Goryeogung Palace Site retains the history of the Goryeo Dynasty as a capital for 39 years after its relocation. Let's trace the Ganghwa battlefields along the coastline from Goryeogung Palace Site in the north of Ganghwa.

Trip to an Old and Distant Memory

Gyodongdo Island

Daeryong Market #Nostalgia #Civilian control line #Swallow

How to get there 📍 Via Gyodong Bridge

You must cross the civilian control line to enter, but this island is as peaceful and quiet as any island off Incheon. A considerable number of residents of Gyodongdo Island are from Yeonbaek-gun in North Korea. People who evacuated during the Korean War settled down on this island. This might be the reason why there are traces of old times here, as if time had stopped ticking away.

Gyodong Studio

If you miss the memories of your school days, we recommend taking pictures at Gyodong Studio. This has become a popular spot for visitors from around the country. There are school uniforms, hats, and training suits from the old days. It is possible to time-travel to the past for a while by taking a photograph wearing old clothes.

To Koreans who came from the north and could never go back to their hometowns, swallows that return to their birthplace every year hold a special meaning. From this, a tourist information center was formed under the name 'Gyodong Swallow Nest (Jebijip)'. On the media screen along the wall, visitors can publish their own issues of the Gyodong Newspaper and experience building a virtual Bridge of Peace from Gyodong to Yeonbaek. Taking a bike tour on a rental bike can get you to all corners of the island.

Chotdaebawi Rock (Candlestick Rock)

It is called Chotdaebawi Rock because it is shaped like a candlestick that stands up to the sky. This rock is located on the edge of Mt. Sorigaesan at the end of the southeastern wharf on Seungbongdo Island. You can also see the Samhyeongje (Three Brothers) Rocks where three rocks are gathered.

Namdaemunbawi Rock (Kokkiri Rock)

This rock formation is located on Mongdol Beach on Seungbongdo Island, and it only shows itself at low tide. It looks like a giant gate like Namdaemun. People also call it 'Kokkiri Rock' because it looks like a Kokkiri (an elephant) from a certain angle. The sea between the rocks shines with more of a green tint against the rocks.

Whenever you walk on Kongdol Beach which is preserved as Natural Monument (No. 391), you can feel the smooth stones under your feet. 2 km-long coast is covered with gravels. You can walk barefoot or lie down and rest here as if you were taking a hot bath. The crashing of the waves against the gravels on the beach is itself another element of healing.

Dumujin

You will be fascinated by the stunning coastal scenery, strange rocks, and bizarre stones. While you can have a whole view of Dumujin from the ferry, you can take a closer look at the inside of Dumujin while walking. From the top of Dumujin, you can view the land of North Korea.

Baengnyeongdo Must-try Foods

Sagot Naengmyeon (cold noodles)

Sagot Naengmyeon on Baengnyeongdo Island is a delicacy. This Hwanghaedo-style Naengmyeon (cold noodle) is made with high buckwheat content. Beef bone broth seasoned with Baengnyeongdo sand lance sauce makes the soup extra rich and sweet.

Yongteurimbawi Rock (Twisting Dragon Rock)

Two rocks rise in a twisted shape toward the sky. You can feel the mystery when seeing such a rock. Rising up against the sea and sky, it stands opposite to the Nampo-ri Wetland (Natural Monument No. 507), which was formed during the late Paleozoic or early Mesozoic era.

Sagot Beach

What kind of beach is Natural Monument No. 391? As soon as you get out of the car, you will get an idea. Strong, solid sand spreads out here for about 3km, which seems to present the perfect natural runway. The water is clear and shallow, making it great for playing with kids.

Simcheonggak Shrine

At Simcheonggak Shrine, you can see Indangsu Sea where Simcheong jumped to sacrifice herself, and Yeonbongbawi Rock, the site of her reincarnation. Because North Korea is clearly visible from here, many homesick displaced people visit this shrine. There are various materials related to Simcheongjeon on the first floor, and a PR center and resting spaces are housed on the 2nd floor. On a clear day, you can have a look at Jangsangot in North Korea.

Daecheongdo Island is where most skates are caught in Korea. You can taste skate dishes cooked in various ways - raw, steamed, stewed, or deep fried - at a reasonable price. In particular, Hongeo Aetang (skate fish offal soup) is a delicacy that you must try. Special programs are offered at Hongeo (Skate) Village, showcasing award-winning products from the 2021 Incheon Culinary Tourism Product Contest.

Nongyeo Beach · Miadong Beach

The Nongyeo Beach and Miadong Beach merge into one beach at low tide. The sandy island that appears during low tide in front of Growth Ring Rock is exquisite. A rock with a mystery of tens of thousands of years is truly an artistic work assembled on the canvas of these beaches.

Okjukdong Coastal Dune

It is amazing to see a sandy desert on an island. Known as the 'Sahara of Korea', the sand here is so fine and soft that it is swept away with even a gentle wind. A strong wind leaves a long wave pattern on the sand. It is the only place where you can truly leave your footsteps in the sands of time just walking step by step.

Garaechilgi beach

Byeongpungbawi Rock · Garaechilgi Beach

The Corbina Museum is a good place to view this rock and beach in the northwestern direction. Byeongpungbawi Rock is one of the magnificent pieces of scenery on Yeonpyeongdo Island having waves, wind, and time carved the rocks into a stretched folding screen on the Beach. Garaechilgi beach spreads out alongside Byeongpungbawi Rock. When you step on the beach, you can feel the sea through the sound of the waves.

National Security Training Center

The building bombed by North Korean artillery shells in 2010, was rebuilt and turned into the National Security Training Center. It displays a description of the damages and bombings in Yeonpyeong-ri at that time. It realistically reminds us how horrible a war would be and how precious peace is.

Corbina Museum

This museum introduces the history of Yeonpyeongdo Island, where so many yellow corbinas were caught that a seasonal corbina market used to be held here. It is said that more than 300 ships from all over the country flocked to Yeonpyeong Sea to catch corbinas in the late Joseon Dynasty. You can also see materials about Pungeoje (a ritual for bountiful fish) held in Yeonpyeongdo and for General Im Gyeong-Eop.

Manghyang Observatory

Although it may feel a little tough to get there because of the many steps along the way, this observatory offers a close look at North Korea. On special holidays, Koreans separated from families in the north visit this spot to perform ancestral ceremonies with a sense of nostalgia.

➕ Ice Cream Bawi Rock

During winter, Ice Cream Bawi Rock looks like an ice cream when the rock is covered with frozen snow and seawater.

Yeonpyeongdo Must-try Food

Yeonpyeongdo Blue Crab Dish

The main catch for Yeonpyeongdo fishermen is crab. Yeonpyeongdo crabs are much bigger and plumper than in other places. If you visit Yeonpyeongdo Island in spring or fall, you must try them, as they are tastiest in these seasons.

INK (INCHON K-POP) Concert

Sep

Since 2000, when it was successfully opened amid roaring attention, this concert has become Incheon's representative Hallyu (Korean Wave) festival.

📍 Munhak Sports Complex Main Stadium

Sorae Port Festival

Oct

This festival is held based on the concept that Sorae Port is the only traditional fishing port in the metropolitan area. Various attractions and abundant experience events are available here, where you can celebrate together with the local citizens.

📍 67, Jangdo-ro Namdong-gu, the whole Sorae Port area

Incheon Open Port Culture Night

Jun-Sep

At night, the Open Port Area shines in a different way from the daytime. You can explore various cultural performances and exhibitions in the spring and autumn, and the Open Port Area where modern civilization was first propagated in Korea. It is especially fun to look around the assets of modern times illuminating with the beautiful lightscape.

📍 Cultural district in Open Port Area in Jung-gu

Songdo Global Culture Festival

Aug-Sep

You can enjoy some of the most delicious beer and food, exciting live concerts, fireworks, and EDM parties during this festival.

📍 360, Central-ro, Yeon-u-gu (Songdo Dalbit Festival Park)

Bupyeong Pungmul Festival

Oct

Bupyeong Pungmul Festival was introduced to reenact the agricultural culture of Incheon and Bupyeong, and to promote traditional culture institutions and customs (Pungmul). This festival aims to unite participants by opening, sharing, exchanging, and communicating through institutions and customs.

📍 Bupyeong-daero and Bupyeong

Dongincheon Nangman Market Festival

Oct

At this newtro (new + retro) market festival, local residents and merchants recreate the scenes of Dongincheon Market in the 1970s, which was the most prosperous time in its history.

📍 Songhyeon-dong, Dong-gu (North Square, Dongincheon Station)

※ Festival programs may be subject to change according to the circumstances.
